

East Nara Nabari Tourism ROADMAP

1.5 Hour Drive from Osaka

Nature

Shorenji Lake & Kaochidani Valley

青蓮寺湖と香落溪

A popular scenic drive in Kansai. Shorenji lake is notable for its picturesque scenery in the spring with surrounding cherry trees in full bloom. Kaochidani Valley, where sheer cliffs stretch 8 km (5 mi) along Shorenji River, attracts more people in November to enjoy autumn foliage.

Soni Highland

曾爾高原

This high basin 40-hectare plateau lies between Mt. Kuroso and Mt. Kame in Nara Prefecture. Although the pinnacle of Soni Highland's beauty is October, when it is covered in lovely fronds of shimmering silver pampas grass, it can also be enjoyed in spring and summer, when it appears like a fresh, green carpet.

Historic Sites

Murou-ji Temple

室生寺

Murou-ji is one of the best-known destinations in East Nara Nabari. It has long been referred to as "Women's Koya", because it welcomed female worshippers. The highlight of the complex is Japan's smallest outdoor five-storied pagoda. The temple grounds are also spectacular in autumn with the blazing colors of foliage.

Niu-Kawakami Shrine (Middle Shrine)

丹生川上神社中社

This Shrine is located in Higashiyoshino Village, which had very close ties to the imperial court in ancient times. Founded in 675, it was ranked as one of the highest 22 shrines. Part of its importance for the country's rulers was that it enshrined the deity of water, to whom people offered prayers for rainmaking and rainstopping.

MAPCODE 439 808 381 *27

Legend of Princess & Mitsue Village

倭姫命と御杖村

The village was named after a legend of Princess Yamatohime, who traveled to Ise seeking the most appropriate place to enshrine the goddess, Amaterasu-omikami. Mitsue Shrine is believed where the princess left her cane, Shisha Shrine is said where she purified her hands on her way to Ise.
